

Descriptions of Places and Characters

Name.....

A Seaside Setting

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the setting? Make notes in the boxes about what you might see, hear, feel and smell. When you have made your notes, turn to the next page where you can write a description.

What can you see?

What can you hear?

What can you smell?

What can you feel?

Mr Stobbler's Spooky House

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the setting? Make notes in the boxes about what you might see, hear, feel and smell. When you have made your notes, turn to the next page where you can write a description.

What can you see?

What can you hear?

What can you smell?

What can you feel?

All the Fun of the Fair

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the setting? Make notes in the boxes about what you might see, hear, feel and smell. When you have made your notes, turn to the next page where you can write a description.

What can you see?

What can you hear?

What can you smell?

What can you feel?

All the Fun of the Fair

Write a description of the setting below. If you are not sure how to get started you can use the paragraph next to the picture to help you, but when you see the words your turn you will need to use your own ideas to help you to continue the sentences.

Remember to use adjectives and adverbs to make your description sound more interesting!

It was a dark and chilly night and as I entered the fairground, I was dazzled by the sight of your turn. My ears were rang with the sounds of your turn. I felt your turn. Delicious smells of your turn filled the air.

Bonfire Night

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the setting? Make notes in the boxes about what you might see, hear, feel and smell. When you have made your notes, turn to the next page where you can write a description.

What can you see?

What can you hear?

What can you smell?

What can you feel?

Bonfire Night

Write a description of the setting below. If you are not sure how to get started you can use the paragraph next to the picture to help you, but when you see the words your turn you will need to use your own ideas to help you to continue the sentences.

Remember to use adjectives and adverbs to make your description sound more interesting!

It was November 5th and finally the bonfire was alight! Above my head I could see your turn. My ears were tingled with the sounds of your turn. I felt your turn. Smells of your turn filled the air.

Judd the Giant

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the character of Judd the Giant? Read the questions in the boxes and make some notes. When you have finished, turn to the next page and write a character description of Judd the Giant.

What does he look like?

What does he smell like?

What does he like to eat?

What makes him happy?

What makes him grumpy?

What does he like to do?

Wanda the Witch

Look at the picture below. Can you describe the character of Wanda the Witch? Read the questions in the boxes and make some notes. When you have finished, turn to the next page and write a character description of Wanda the Witch.

Where does she live?

What does she look like?

What does she smell like?

What does she like to do?

What makes her happy?

What makes her angry?

Create a Good Character

Can you create your very own good character?

Make notes in the boxes below to help you to decide on your character's physical appearance and personality traits.

When you have made your notes, draw a picture of your character in the box at the bottom of the page.

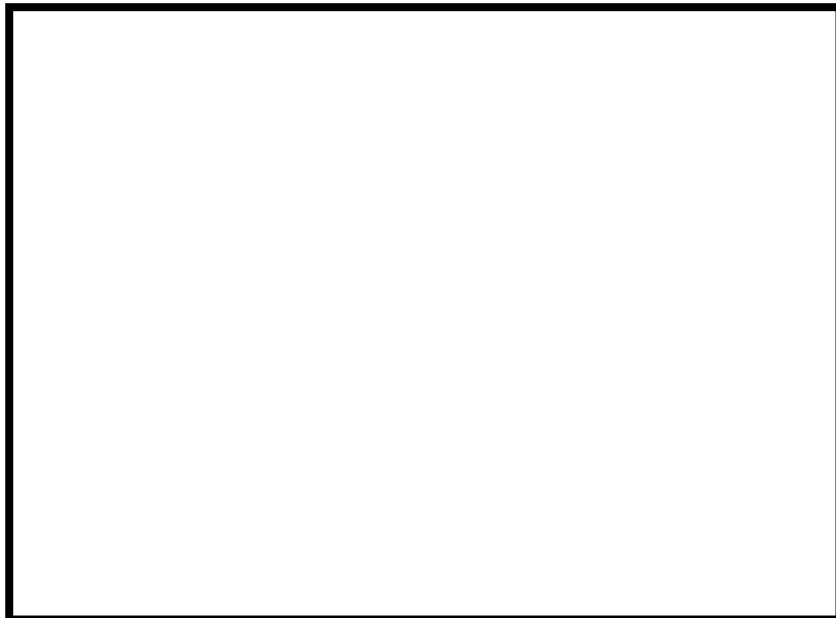

What is your character's name?

What does your character look like?

Where does your character live?

Why is your character good?

What does your character like to do?

Create an Evil Character

Can you create your very own evil character?

Make notes in the boxes below to help you to decide on your character's physical appearance and personality traits.

When you have made your notes, draw a picture of your character in the box at the bottom of the page.

What is your character's name?

What does your character look like?

Where does your character live?

Why is your character evil?

What does your character like to do?

