

Little Red Riding Hood

Once upon a time there was a young girl called Little Red Riding Hood. She lived with her mother and father in a cottage in the forest.

One day, Little Red Riding Hood's mother asked, "Will you take these delicious cakes to Grandmother?" "Yes I will." replied Little Red Riding Hood, and off she went. Grandmother's house was on the other side of the forest but unfortunately, in the forest, there lived a big, bad wolf. When the wolf saw Little Red Riding Hood he whispered, "Mmmm, she looks rather delicious. I think I'll have her for my dinner."

Little Red Riding Hood wandered along with her basket of cakes. Eventually, she arrived at her Grandmother's little cottage. Little Red Riding Hood knocked on the door.

"Come in my dear." said a funny voice. Nervously, Little Red Riding Hood opened the door and went into the cottage.

"Come closer my dear." said the funny voice.

"Oh Grandmother, what big ears you have!" said Little Red Riding Hood.

"All the better to hear you with my dear, come closer." said the funny voice.

“Oh Grandmother, what big eyes you have!”
said Little Red Riding Hood.
“All the better to see you with my dear.”
said the funny voice. “Come closer.”
“Oh Grandmother, what big teeth you have!”
said Little Red Riding Hood.
“All the better to EAT you with!” cried the wolf.
The wolf jumped up and chased Little Red Riding Hood round and round the cottage.
“HELP!” cried Little Red Riding Hood.
Luckily, Little Red Riding Hood’s father was in the forest. Straightaway, he ran to Grandmother’s door with his big axe.
When the wolf saw Red Riding Hood’s father,
he ran and ran and was never seen in the forest again!
Finally, Little Red Riding Hood rescued her poor grandmother from the rubbish bin where the wolf had thrown her and was, at last, able to give her the those delicious cakes.
