

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Once upon a time there was shepherd boy who spent days hillside watching village sheep eventually became bored amuse decided sing wolf chasing immediately villagers running help drive away but arrived grumbling down later again naughty delight saw sternly frightened wrong grinned real prowling flock leapt loudly fool sunset wondered weeping scattered believe tricked comfort liar truth